BURGER NATION

From January 26th until March 3rd, venues across the nation will be serving up special burgers as a promotion put on by Cook and Nelson using McClure's pickles. These are the same people behind the Toastie Takeover which we absolutely love being apart of. We'll be serving our burger up for both dine in and takeaway at lunch time Wednesday – Sunday throughout those dates and we're also hoping to open for one dinner at some point throughout the festival so those wanting the burger as an evening meal has the chance to do so. Our burger is as follows:

SHOUT AT THE DEVIL:

Wagyu beef patty with pulled brisket, chipotle spiced BBQ mayo, crispy onion ring, McClure's bread & butter pickles, slaw & hot sauce in a housemade milk bun. Served with fries & devil gravy $29
Beer Match: Abandoned APA

DINNER EVENTS

We'll be looking to hold a dinner event once a month. Sometimes these are themed and sometimes they're just an a la carte menu but they're ALWAYS super popular so if you'd like to come to Café Polo make sure to join the mailing list so you can hear about them before the masses.

SUNDAY ROAST

The date for our first Sunday Roast is yet to be set but as soon as it has this will be sent out to the mailing list and posted to social media.
